During the challenge, I faced some issues, like lack of resources when cloning the said wireframe given. I struggle to find the resources used, so, to solve this problem I utilized other resources just to fully copy the wireframe given. Used alternative logo and images. I finished the challenge at least 2 hours maybe because the resources and some color palette accuracy, even though the colors are not close enough at least I clone the content itself.